1. An electrical permit is not required if the only electrical work is testing.
   True or False.

2. The holder a regular permit must submit a request for the inspection, at least once in every 60 days.
   True or False.

3. If the electric utility is required to reconnect an electrical service, is a permit required?
   True or False.      Rule: ______________________.

4. A permit is required when an electrical contractor is hired to trouble shoot an electrical problem at your home?
   True or False.      Rule: ______________________.

5. A recreational vehicle that is permanently occupied is defined as a “fully detached dwelling”.
   True or False.      Rule: ______________________.

6. As soon as practicable, after an incident occurs, the person in charge of the regulated work must report the incident to the appropriate safety manager.
   True or False.

7. An electrical equipment manufacturer may sell unapproved equipment as long as he ensures the equipment is approved before it is used.
   True or False.

8. An individual may perform regulated electrical work with BCTQ credentials.
   True or False.      Rule: ______________________.

9. A person must not use electrical equipment in British Columbia, or offer for sale, sell, display or otherwise dispose of electrical equipment for use in British Columbia, unless the electrical equipment displays a label or mark.
   True or False.      Rule: ______________________.

10. The holder of a class B, certificate of qualification may make declarations with respect to electrical installations in which the amperage of the completed installation exceeds 750 volts.
    True or False.      Rule: ______________________.

11. A homeowner may replace a 5-15R receptacle without a permit.
    True or False.      Rule: ______________________.

12. An application for a contractor’s license will not be accepted unless the applicant has obtained a Surety Bond.
    True or False.
13. A FSR is permitted to inspect work done by licensed electrical contractor.
   True or False.

14. An electrical contractor must request an inspection prior to concealing any portion of the rough wiring.
   True or False. Rule: ____________________.

15. In order to obtain a certificate of qualification for class A, B or C as a field safety representative, an individual must complete a course in the application of electrical codes and standards required by the provincial safety manager and pass an examination required by the provincial safety manager.
   True or False. Rule: ____________________.

16. A homeowner who performs electrical work under an installation permit must request that the work be inspected by a safety officer, if no other inspection has been made within 180 days from the start of the permit, immediately before the expiry of the 180 day period.
   True or False. Rule: ____________________.

17. The Canadian electrical code, part 1, twenty-first edition, safety standard for electrical installations, Canadian standards association standard C22.1-09 is adopted in whole, including any errata and as if it were amended as set out in the schedule to this regulation.
   True or False. Rule: ____________________.

18. If no inspection request has been submitted within 180 day period, the holder of the permit must obtain a supplementary permit to allow for the extra time before performing any regulated work.
   True or False. Rule: ____________________.

19. A manufacturer’s technical representative is allowed to perform electrical work.
   True or False. Rule: ____________________.

20. A manufacturer’s technical representative may perform electrical work on electrical equipment supplied by the manufacturer.
   True or False.

21. A FSR may represent more than one electrical contractors.
   True or False.

22. An electrical engineer may apply to a provincial safety manager for a certificate of qualification as a field safety representative.
   True or False. Rule: ____________________.

23. A homeowner is permitted to install a 400 amp, 120/240 volt service.
   True or False. Rule: ____________________.

24. A homeowner may perform the electrical work in the homeowner’s fully detached dwelling under an installation permit issued to a licensed electrical contractor for that work, provided the contractor who holds the permit supervises the work.
25. A permit is required for any electrical work that requires the attendance of the utility to connect or re-connect the electrical service.
   True or False.

26. For the purposes of doing regulated work under an installation permit for electrical equipment in which the field safety representative named in the permit is a person who holds a certificate of qualification of class C, may supervise up to 4 individuals for installations derived from a 3 wire 120/240 volt grounded neutral system, if the rating of the main consumer service equipment does not exceed 200 amps.
   True or False    Rule: ____________________________.

27. An electrical contractor may repair a certified piece of electrical equipment, provided the rating or characteristics are not altered, without obtaining an electrical permit.
   True or False.   Rule: ____________________________.

28. A homeowner may perform the electrical work in the homeowner’s fully detached dwelling under installation permit issued to a licensed electrical contractor provided the contractor who holds the permit supervises the work, and the homeowner only performs the work.
   True or False.   Rule: ____________________________.

29. Electrical equipment that has not been approved may be displayed for not more than 14 days without the regulatory authority written permission to do so.
   True or False.   Rule: ____________________________.

30. An electrical contractor’s license will not be issued to a contractor unless the contractor or one of his employees satisfies the requirement of an FSR
   True or False.

31. The provincial safety manager may require that a registered electrical contractor’s surety bond be used to rectify work left in an unsafe condition by the electrical contractor.
   True or False.

32. If the electrical maintenance is performed on a building or permit, the application for the operating permit must include the name, class and certificate of qualification number of the field safety representative who will perform or supervise the regulated work under the permit.
   True or False.   Rule: ____________________________.

33. In order to obtain a class A certificate of the qualification as field safety representative an individual must also complete 30 high voltage installations.
   True or False.   Rule: ____________________________.
Answers

1. True  ESR, Part 2, Div 1, Section 18(1)
2. False  ESR, Part 2, Div 1, Section 19
3. True  Part 2 Div 1 (11 & 2)
4. False  Part 2 Div 1 (18 & 2)
5. True  Definitions
6. True  SS Act, Part 7, Div 4, Section 36
7. False  ESR, Part 2, Div 2, Section 21(1)
8. True  Part 1 Div 1 (4 & 1 a)
9. True  Part 2 Div 2 (21 & 1 a)
10. True  Part 1 Div 2 (7 & 4)
11. True  Part 2 Div 1 (18 & 2 a)
12. True  SSGR, Part 1, Div 2, Section 6b
13. False  SSGR, Part 5, Section 26
14. True  Part 2 Div 1 (19 & 4 a)
15. True  Part 1 Div 2 (8 & 1 a, b, c)
16. True  Part 2 Div 1 (17 & 4 b)
17. True  Part 2 Div 2 (20)
18. True  Part 2 Div 1 (19 & 2)
19. True  Part 1 Div 1 (4 & 1 e)
20. True  ESR, Part 1, Div 1, Section 4(1)(e)
21. True  SSGR, Part 5, Section 24(1)
22. True  Part 1 Div 2 (10 & 2)
23. False  Part 2 Div 1 (17 & 2 b)
24. True  ESR part 2 section 17 subsection (6)a
25. True  ESR Part 2 Div 1 Sec 11 (2)
26. True  Part 2 Div 1 (12 & 2 a)
27. True  Part 2 Div 1 (18 & 5 b)
28. True  Part div 1 (17) (6) (a & b)
29. False  Part 2 Div 2 (21) (4) (a)
30. True  SSGR, Part 1, Div 2, Section 6(a)
31. True  SSGR, Part 1, Div 2 Section 11
32. True  Part 2 Div 1 (14)
33. False  Part 1 Div 2 (8) (2)